The Roots of our Faith and Tradition: the First 500 Years of Christianity is offered on Tuesday mornings through Nov. 1st from 8:45am-10:15am in the church basement. A video presentation by Fr. David Meconi, S.J. discusses, in simple language, the development of some of the most important Church teachings and doctrine in the early Church: Who were the leaders of the Church after the death of the Apostles, the Church under persecution, Mary as Mother of God, St. Augustine and the beauty of Confession, St. Leo the Great and the dual natures of Christ (man and God). These teachings lie at the foundation of our faith and are important in a discussion of what we believe as Catholics today. The video presentations will be facilitated by Mike Viola, PhD. Mike is a member of St. Anthony’s Parish and is presently enrolled in graduate studies in theology at the Aquinas Institute of Theology in St. Louis. Mike has been coordinating the Contemplative Prayer Group that meets weekly on Mondays.
