

Faith Formation Christmas Newsletter

Dear Faith Formation Families,

I want to just take this time to wish you all a very blessed Christmas. The past few months have been absolutely incredible and filled with so many moments that have helped me realize why being here is so wonderful. It has truly been a blessing to guide each and every one of you through this journey of faith.

As we enter into this season of Christmas let us joyfully welcome Christ into all corners our lives. Christmas is a time when we recognize the coming of Lord into the world, a time that is certainly very exciting and joyful! Let us take that joy that Christ brings to us and spread it to all those we encounter during this Christmas season. To experience the love and joy of Christ is truly a gift of the season!

As a reminder, our Faith Formation classes will not meet either this weekend (12/24 & 12/25) or next weekend (12/31 & 1/1). We will resume all classes (including pre-Confirmation and Confirmation) on Sunday, January 7 (for Sunday classes) and Monday, January 8 (for Monday classes). I hope you all have a wonderful holiday break with your family
